

POLICY GUIDELINES
 Paper Pattern and Distribution of Marks
 (Curriculum-2022-23)
 English SSC-I

The question paper is organized into three sections, namely: "Section A, B & C". Questions posed may be of the IQ level of SSC-I students with regard to content and difficulty level. Distribution of the questions with respect to cognitive level shall approximately be 30% Knowledge (K), 50% Understanding (U) and 20% Application (A).

SECTION – A(Marks 15)

While writing MCQs, sufficient representation may be given to the various assessable areas of competencies and their SLOs with particular focus on the competency of ‘Vocabulary and Grammar’.

SECTION – B(Marks 40)

Q.2	This part of the question paper will consist of a comprehension passage of 250 to 350 words having similar levels of difficulty, complexity, essence, and relevance as well as compatibility with the content taught in the classroom. There will be five questions appended to it based on various SLOs and Cognitive Levels as specified in the Curriculum. The students are required to answer five parts including compulsory Question (i) about summary writing bearing six marks. The other parts will be of three marks each. The passage of the SSC-I level will be aligned with text types, themes and subthemes mentioned in the curriculum 2022-23. The religious, ethnic, cultural and gender biases must be avoided while selecting / setting the passage in line with the guidelines for appropriate ethical and social development mentioned in the curriculum.	6 +4x3=18
Q.3	a. Students are required to paraphrase any one of the given stanzas with a difficulty level of SSC-I.	3 Marks
	b. Students are required to answer variety of questions based on any one of the given stanzas aligned with assessable SLOs given in the Curriculum 2022-23.	6 Marks
Q.4	a. This part of the question consists of a short para with multiple blanks with any four to be filled correctly with appropriate conjunctions / transitional devices given in the list. However, it may be noted that other grammatical items of identical nature mentioned in SLOs for SSC-I may also be asked in the question.	4 Marks
	b. This part of the question consists of eight sentences; each of the sentences is followed by a direction based on different grammatical items with particular focus on the use of tenses and other structural aspects. Candidates are required to correct / fill any six of the given sentences as per directions given in the parenthesis. It may be noted that this part of the question may include other grammatical items of identical nature.	6 Marks
	c. This part of the question requires the students to punctuate correctly and rewrite the given para/lines containing six mistakes/omissions of punctuation. Note: Other grammatical items may also be asked.	3 Marks

SECTION – C (Marks 20)

Q.5	Students are required to write a formal letter in extended academic and professional environments for various purposes.			8 Marks
Note: 1. A response with only the format and without any content/body of the letter will not be awarded any marks. 2. This question will be evaluated as per the format given below:
Sender's Address		0.5	Date	0.5
Receiver's Address				0.5
Subject		0.5	Salutation	0.5
Body of the Letter		5	Complementary Closing: e.g Yours Sincerely, X.Y.Z.	0.5

Q.6	Students are required to write a paragraph of approximately 80 to 100 words on any one of the given topics.	6 Marks
Q.7	Students are required to write a dialogue between multiple people on any one of the two given topics. Note: A candidate should produce at least six sets of conversations relevant to the topic other than the opening & closing remarks. The dialogue must cover the following: i. Multiple people (from different walks of life) ii. Settings/background details must be written in brackets iii. The use of vocabulary, tone and style should be appropriate to the context and relationship between the addresser and the addressee.	6 Marks