SECTION – B (Marks 40)

Q. 2 Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions appended to it.

Note: Question No. (i) about summary writing is carrying 08 marks while rest of the questions carry 04 marks each (8 + 5 x 4 = 28)

The day slowly passed. As it grew dark, they could still see the leaf hanging from its branch against the wall. And then, as the night came, the north wind began again to blow. The rain still beat against the windows. When it was light enough the next morning, Johnsy again commanded that she be allowed to see.

The leaf was still there.

Johnsy lay for a long time looking at it. And then she called to Sue, who was cooking something for her to eat.

"I've been a bad girl, Sue," said Johnsy. "Something has made that last leaf stay there to show me how bad I was. It is wrong to want to die. I'll try to eat now. But first bring me a looking-glass, so that I can see myself. And then I'll sit up and watch you cook".

An hour later she said, "Sue, someday I hope to paint the Bay of Naples." The doctor came in the afternoon. Sue followed him into the hall outside Johnsy's room to talk to him.

"The chances are good," said the doctor. He took Sue's thin, shaking hand in his. "Give her good care, and she'll get well. And now I must see another sick person in this house. His name is Behrman. A painter, I believe. Pneumonia, too. Mike is an old weak man, and he is very ill. There is no hope for him. But we take him to the hospital today. We'll make it as easy for him as we can".

The next day the doctor said to Sue: "She's safe. You have done it. Food and care now— that's all."

And that afternoon, Sue came to the bed where Johnsy lay. She put one arm round her.

(i) Write down the summary of the given passage and suggest a suitable title. (7+1=8)

(ii) How was the weather very harsh that night to trigger the fall of the last leaf?

OR

Why was Johnsy so keen to see the leaf early next morning?

(iii) What made Johnsy think that she was a bad girl to get so fed up with life?

OR

Do you agree with Johnsy that she was really a bad girl to be thinking like that?

(iv) What was that something which made the leaf to stay there and become a symbol of hope for Johnsy?

(v) How is it a great transformation while Johnsy asks for a mirror to see her face instead of the last leaf?

(vi) The contribution of Sue and the doctor has been quite instrumental to save Johnsy's life. Comment.
